

CMF Scottish Students' Conference 2007

Outlook Expressed: Developing a Biblical worldview

Saturday 21st April 2007

10am - 9pm

Holy Trinity Church Halls, Queens Terrace, St Andrews

Mark Stirling, our main speaker, is passionate about seeing God's people equipped to serve Him in every sphere of human activity. He will look at how having a biblical worldview will impact everything we do.

Mark worked as a GP for 7 years before responding to the call to engage in full-time student ministry with the Navigators in Edinburgh. With his wife and 4 children, he relocated to Missouri to attend theological seminary, and then moved to St Andrews last year to study for a PhD.

Enjoy a day meeting with God and with other Christian medical students in the beautiful surroundings of St Andrews in Fife. This day of worship will include teaching, a choice of seminar workshops on topics such as Psychiatry, Prayer, Ministry and Leadership, interspersed with prayer, time to discuss and ask questions. In the afternoon some free time will allow you to explore the castle, cathedral and town, enjoy some games on the beach, or chill out in one of St Andrews' abundant coffee shops.

Cost: £5 contribution towards your meals. (Please pay on arrival) This conference has been generously subsidised by doctors in CMF.

Travel: Buses from around the country arrive into St Andrews bus station. The nearest train station is Leuchars which is a 10 min bus ride from St Andrews. By car, St Andrews is one hour northeast of the Forth Road Bridge, or 20 mins south of the Tay Bridge.

Please use the online booking form www.cmfscotland.org.uk/students/index.html#bf before 14th April. If you would like to stay in St Andrews on Friday or Saturday night, we can arrange that, just get in touch. If you have any questions please contact Tom Green on 07754687849 or via the booking form.

A map of St Andrews and details of seminar options will be sent after booking.
